

Past Presidents Report

July 24, 2008

A year ago, I was just beginning a very exciting journey as President of the Kansas Counseling Association. The job was intimidating, but at the same time exhilarating, as I realized I would be leading a large number of highly qualified, professional counselors from every facet of the counseling realm. It is a position I am glad to have held, but one that could not have been successful without all of the remarkable people I had a chance to work with.

In addition to the work, there were opportunities to meet and be involved with a number of wonderful people. The networking and sharing are things I will never forget. I thank all of the KCA Executive Board and the members of KCA for allowing me this opportunity.

I feel that the Kansas Counseling Association is headed in the right direction thanks to the previous leadership and I know Paul will continue to lead us into our next 50 years as the finest professional counselor organization.

Respectfully Submitted,

Jim Flax
