

PRESIDENT-ELECT BOARD REPORT

KCA was represented at the Mid-West Region Leadership Training Conference by President, Paul Kyle; President-Elect, Nadine Bailey; Past-President, Jim Flax; Executive Secretary, Dana Wood; and Emerging Leader, Christine Perez. Evanston, Illinois, is North of Chicago, along Lake Michigan and, home of “Willie the Wildcat”, mascot of Northwestern University! The Leadership Conference keynote speakers were: Dr. Courtland Lee who addressed the ACAF Social Action Grant Program and its affect on second century ACA Counselors; Dr. Coleen Logan, ACA President, spoke of ACA’s future and where each of us fit; and Sherene McHenry shared how each of us, as well as our clients, can learn to live above uncertainty, chaos, and fear. Dr. David Kaplan presented the 7 principles of unifying and strengthening the profession. He asked that Mid-West consider endorsing the statement of principles to continue the forward movement of the unified counseling profession.

KCA will have a membership table at the KSDE Fall Conference for Counselors, November 6th in Emporia. Rosaline Wiseman will be the featured speaker.

Plans continue for the Great Bend KCA Convention. The “Call for Programs” was in the September issue of the KCA Newsletter and is also on the ListServe. Deadline for program submission is December 12, 2008. The Program Committee met Wednesday, November 5th at 3 p.m. at the Emporia Holiday Inn Express to discuss schedule, presenters, and vendors.

Nadine Bailey
bailey@usd367.org